SECOND REVISED EDITION

EDITED BY RALPH F. GAEBLER AND ALISON A. SHEA

The background of the cover features a historical map of the world, showing continents like Europe, Africa, and Asia, and oceans like the Indian Ocean and the Southern Ocean. The map is overlaid with a grid of latitude and longitude lines. At the bottom of the cover, there is a faint illustration of a person's head and shoulders, possibly a classical figure, looking towards the left. The overall color scheme is muted, with a light beige or cream color for the text and a dark, textured background for the map and illustration.

Sources of State Practice in International Law is a descriptive bibliography of both electronic and printed sources of information containing the text of treaties and the record of diplomatic activity of important jurisdictions around the world. As such, it includes an up-to-date description of national treaty portals and other valuable Internet-based sources. At the same time, it also includes descriptions of printed sources providing access to treaties and official diplomatic documentation difficult to locate in standard compilations. In addition, this work includes a narrative section for each jurisdiction summarizing issues related to treaty succession and treaty implementation in municipal law.

Sources of State Practice in International Law is an indispensable reference for researchers in both international law and international relations.
